

WAO Centers of Excellence Application Form

Please review the section titled “Required Documentation”

Required Documentation

All documents should be translated to English:

1.  Description of the Center infrastructure and facilities.
2.  Official document of registered graduate programs (Residency program and/or MSc/PhD program) in the field of Allergy and Immunology.
3.  List of professors directly involved in the graduate programs
4.  List of current graduate students and of those graduated during the last 3 years.
5.  Curriculum vitae of the applicant center’s director(s)
6.  List and curriculum vitae of the center’s academic staff (faculty).
7.  List of at least 10 peer-reviewed publications during the last three years in the field of allergy and immunology. Please include each publication’s relevant PubMed or DOI number.
8.  List of current funded research projects, including names, funding agency, official codes of the grants.
9.  List of National and International collaborations with partners’ names and addresses/affiliations, briefly describing each collaboration.
10.  List and description of your Center’s involvement with advocacy and community education activities.
11.  Letter of support from the Dean or equivalent administrative office
12.  Letter of support from a WAO Member Society. The Member Society must be in good standing. See the list of WAO’s active member societies here.
13.  A recommendation letter from at least one External Advisor
14.  Optional: A List of Patents (with official codes), Registries, and or Biobanks
15.  Optional: Provide Information about clinical trials lead by the center, including names, funding agency, and the official grant codes.